ARID LAND IRRIGATION.

National Board of Trade Favors Small WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 .- At today's session of the National Board of Trade the committee on irrigation in its report favored the plan of the Government irrigation of the arid lands, and their subdivision into small tracts for the benefit of actual settlers; favored forest preservation as a conservator of water supply; urged upon Congress the repeal of the desert land law and the commutation clause of the homestead law; favored the consolidation of the various forestry branches of the Government into the bureau of forestry of the Department of Agriculture; strongly opposed the pro-posed increase in homestead entries from 1% to 650 acres in several States, and favored the establishment of national for-est reserves in the Southern Appalachian mountains and in the White mountains in New Hampshire. The report was adopted.

adopted. A resolution was adopted recommending that the commercial bodies forming the National Board of Trade consider the question of asking President Roosevelt to use his good offices to induce Great Britain to release China from treaty compulsion to allow the optum traffic, which binders foreign commerce by cultivating the "antiforeign" polley and by paperhinders foreign commerce by cultivating the "anti-foreign" polley and by pauper-izing more than 100,000,000 Chinese. A resolution advocating reciprocal trade treaties was unanimously adopted. The board adjourned for a year.
